DON'T FORGET!!! The boat parade is August 9. Let's get those ideas rolling...Let's make this year's parade better than ever.

* * * * *

The Toth family, #320 celebrated Greg Toth's 13th birthday. Sat., July 12th. A good time was had by all, we love you Gregory.

Gaston and Margaret DeWulf spent the 4th holiday resting at their cottage in preparation for the big event next weekend. Their daughter, Cathryn will be married to Richard A. Corns of Elkhart on July 22. The DeWulfs have decided to rename the cottage. Instead of Hillside, it will be Wulf's Lair. All of the wulfs were present this weekend: Bill & Chris Mayer, and children Jennifer and Kurt; Gerald and his guest Miss Judith Emmons of Sscecia, Cathy and Dick.

Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Gallagher and son Brian of Vincennes were guests of the Bob Doolittles last weekend. Mr. Gallagher who accompanied Bob Doolittle on a fishing trip recently to Trout Fly Lake Ontario and caught a 27 lb. trout while there was a bit spoiled for our less exciting Birch Lake fishing.

Ann Doolittle Johnson and husband Andy of Maui, Hawaii are visiting the Doolittles for a week prior to attending a law seminar at Northwestern University. Open house for friends and relatives was held on Sunday and Wednesday in their honor.

Our apologies go to the Williamsville Gas Station for omitting their ad in the last Birch Barker. We appreciate their business as it is so convenient for us Birch Lakers.

All roads leading to Birch Lake are now paved. Walnut Road from Brownsville St. to Harvey Street and Harvey from Walnut to where the blacktop formerly ended was completed last week. The residents of Woodland Cove had private contractor improve the road from Woodland Cove to Harvey Street last week also.

Mr. & Mrs. John Langnell of Detroit have purchased the Robert Brossman Sr. home and plan to make it their retirement home. Mr. Langnell is manager of K Mart in Dearborn. Mrs. Langnell is a sister of Mrs. A. D. Shewman.

Last Thursday Mike Schofield flew to Riverside, California to visit his uncle and aunt Mr. & Mrs. Jay Higgs.

Mrs. Chester Waggoner entertained her bridge club from South Bend at the Waggoner cottage "chaos" last Friday.

Now that we're as settled in our new home in South Bend as possible and back from a fun fish trip to Leech Lake in Minn., the Bill Kings are most glad to finally be at Birch. Bob is with the BSAA Tri-Valley Council contingent at the National Jamboree, Farragut State Park in Idaho until July 23. We know he's having a delightful time, but he'll be happy to spend the rest of the summer at good old Birch Lake.

Petty officer 1st class John F. Budzinski is spending a 10-day leave visiting his parents and brother Tom at #267. He is Fire Control Technician aboard the Guided Missile Destroyer Esc or Huss Richard L. Page homeported at Newport, Rhode Island. John recently returned from a Caribbean cruise and will leave for maneuvers again on July 21. Mr. & Mrs. Harry Fritz and family helped celebrate John's homecoming on Sunday and Mr. & Mrs. Edgin Kohkol and family will visit the Budzinski cottage Wed.

Mrs. Lavon Breece had as her house guests over the weekend: Mrs. & Mrs. Rhymer Scholera and daughter of Hasling Michigan. Mr. & Mrs. Robert Postma and 3 month daughter Rhina of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Postma was formerly Joan Scholma. The Scholma's lived on Birch Lake several years. He worked for the Mich. Conservation Creel as a sensor on Birch Lake and Corey Lake. They renewed many acquaintances with the LaMar Kings, Cindy Dixon, Paul Houser, and Frank Bodza. The Scholma's pleasantly surprised the Bodzas in their home in Harvey Illinois. Mr. Scholma is still with the Conservation experimental station at Hastings.

Dick & Peg Cowen enjoyed the open house last Saturday at the Eagle Lake Yacht Club. Their boat parade was held. They could take lessons from the Birch Lake boat paraders.

Mr. & Mrs. Larry Nifong and children enjoyed the beautiful Sun. at the Cowens #354. Everyone helped initiate the newly built saucer--some considerably more successfully than others.

Mrs. Kathy Ward and Mrs. JO JO Meehan, 2 matronly Diamond Lakers motored to Birch Lake Friday to visit matronly Nancy O'Brien in #250. The "girls" swam, played cards, and generally had a frolicking afternoon.

John O'Brien has joined his sisters at Camp Eberhart. Pat & Ann are camp staffers and John a junior counselor. Brother Major will join the other 3 O'Briens on July 20th as a camper.

Jim Gohn of Casopolis spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. I. O. Gohn.

Cindy and Sandy Barter spent the past week with grandparents, Charlie Purdys. The Barter family were Sat. night supper guests of the Paul Housers.

Mr. & Mrs. F. M. Mutz from Indianapolis will spend this weekend with the Bob Carpenters 112.

Mr. & Mrs. J. E. Goss of Mooresville Indiana are spending the week with the John Balls 98. A trip to see the Cubs play the Mets on Tues at Wrigley Field is planned. Julie Ball leaves Sunday, July 20 for the Mid-American Music camp at Ball State for a week. Julie plays violin in the Northside Jr. High in Elkhart.

Rosemary Woofter and her 2 children Rusty and Shelley visited the Machallecks on Wed. They brought a friend of Rusty's Curt Ross to enjoy the swimming. Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Taylor and daughter Candy visited the Machallecks on Wed. Madelon Davis made a return trip to visit Marianne Desmond on Thurs., to soak up some sun. Marianne and Buffy will return to California on Sat., July 12. They had a wonderful month and will take some Birch Lake tans back to sunny California.
