NEWS FROM AROUND THE LAKE

Kim Price, son of the Prices at cottage #136, stationed at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, was home for a short weekend over the 4th. He hopes to be discharged in August so he may wind up the summer with more skiing.

Judy, Dave, and Jeff Olson are staying at cottage #126. I almost forgot to mention that "Zipper" is also staying there.

The Klappauf's weekend guests were Jean, Carol and Lynette Klessig of Hoffman Estates, Illinois. Also son-in-law Ed, daughter Lisa Lynn. Lisa Lynn had a surprise for Grandpa and Granny Klappauf . . . Lisa started walking last Monday. Well Granny, the fun starts - keeping track of Lisa Lynn.

Phil Beehler will be spending several days in Pompano Beach, Florida, with Grandma and Granddad Mechling. One of the things on the agenda will be a couple of days at Disney World.

Hazel and Arnold Sayers from South Bend are weekend guests of the L. A. Jensens.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Amos Ewbank, (June 29) in Bradenton, Florida. They were former residents of Birch Lake.

Susie and Nancy Holderman have been staying at cottage #39 with their Grandmother, Mrs. H. W. Holderman while their parents, Jim and Betty Holderman, have been on vacation in the East.

June 30 was a red letter day for Beth Staton of cottage #45. It was her 7th birthday and what better place to celebrate than here at Birch Lake. Arriving from Indianapolis in time for the picnic party was her daddy, Bob Staton. Helping her celebrate with games, food and fun were her sister Jennifer Staton, Pam, Vicki and Kelly Schaar, Susan Huston, Buffy Desmond, Jeannie and Alyzon Weaver, and Ilona and Ileana Whiteman.

The new Whiteman cottage on the south side is nearing completion. Looking forward to many years of enjoyment at Birch Lake are the Whiteman family - Dick and Ida, Randy Rick, Ron, Ilona and Ileana.

Celebrating the holiday weekend, the Charles M. Stevens and sons of cottage #46A, entertained Mrs. Stevens' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jones and son Tom of Lima, Ohio. Also, daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCormick of Cleveland Heights, Ohio.

Enjoying Birch Lake (as usual) are the Roddiger's from St. Louis. Grandma and Grandpa Olson were busy on July 2 celebrating Eric's 4th birthday. Brian, 18 months old now, is busy playing and exploring.

Jerry and Kathy Peterson and their children, Scott and Erin, of Portage spent Sunday at the Machalleck's as guests of the Desmonds, who are here from California for two weeks. Despite the weather, swimming and playing and, of course eating, filled the day and they stayed to enjoy the fireworks that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Crist have moved to their new home in Elkhart.

Cottage #5 is a busy, busy place. The Gotstein's daughter, Roberta Woodlief, and four of her kids, Karen, Pat, Chris and Diane, came and are staying several weeks. Andy and Lil Miller, Vi Gotstein's sister, were here a few days all the way from Tampa, Florida but didn't appreciate the cold wind we were having at the time they were here so headed back to their good ole Florida. Tony & Lori Mirabelli with young Tony, Matt, Ann and Jennifer came on Saturday early in the A. M. bringing two more Woodlief's, Dave and Bob from Arlington Heights, Illinois. Gotstein's son Mike and wife Margie with their girls Debby, Sandy, Pat and Jill came to spend Sunday also and watch the fireworks display. Mirabelli's left Monday evening and later in the night were replaced by Jay Woodlief and two friends, Mark and Mike, from Arlington Heights to stay a few days. HELP - care packages welcome!
