COMMENTS FROM THE COMMODORE

We look forward to seeing all members at the annual meeting this evening at 8 pm IN. at the Yacht Club. New officers will be elected. The meeting will follow the FALL DINNER, chaired by JOHN & MARTY BALL. DICK WHITEMAN'S band will play following the meeting.

It has been brought to my attention that there has been some theft on the South and West sides. LET'S KEEP OUR EYES OPEN AND REPORT ANYTHING UNUSUAL TO THE SHERIFF!

DAVE ANTHONY, COMMODORE

SUNFISH FLEET NEWS

Diamond Lake Yacht Club hosted a successful Michiana Sunfish Invitational Championship Regatta last weekend. Thirty-four sailors from the mid-west enjoyed the camaraderie and competition which ranged from Bill Boraheim of Devils Lake Yacht Club of Adrian, MI who finished fifth in the National Championships last year to your Birch Lake Fleet Captain. Birch Lake was represented for all six races by TIM BURCHELL who finished 11th, TOM HOWARD--15th, DAVE OLSON--20th, TONY HAMMES--25th, and JEFF HOWARD and STEVE SANTE--32nd. Thanks and congratulations to REID FRANCIS, DLYC Sunfish Fleet Captain, and the other members of DLYC who put on a successful regatta.

NEWS OF THE LAKERS

HELEN TOTH (320) has been in Portland, Oregon awaiting the birth of the first child of MARK & KAREN TOTH EVANS. ASHLEY TOTH EVANS was born on Aug. 9th. For those of you read National Geographic, the June issue has a picture of MARK EVANS, as well as photographs he took. MARK was one of the select group who were privileged to study the Shroud of Turin. Congratulations to the entire family!

Summer is drawing to a close for all Birch Lakers and especially at JOHN & ODESSA MURPHYS. Their daughter & husband, SHEILA & JIMM COOK and KERI & COLEY from South Bend continue their weekend sojourns at the lake.

Another daughter & family, PEG & TOM CONDON returned to their home in Fowler, Ind. after spending five weeks with Grandma & Grandpa Murphy. The absence of SHANNON, KELLI and KYLE CONDON creates a void on the Westside.

Their son & family, DENNY & CINDY MURPHY and children MICHELLE, KRISTIN, LISA and KEVIN also spent their last weekend of the summer with the MURPHYS and returned to their home in Ypsilanti. Needless to say, life has quieted down at the MURPHYS!

Altho' it was grey and rainy on Tuesday morning, the sun came out and shone brightly as all the above Barker Carriers came to Machalleck's for a party. 3 colored ice cream and appropriate cakes, an angel and a devil and lemonade was enjoyed by everyone on the patio.

Turtles, frogs, swings and just plain talk helped fill the hour pleasantly as all got better acquainted. Mothers Sally Everett, Judy Olson and Katha Machalleck were also present and joined in the festivities.

Missing were Amy Ross, on vacation and Bobby Schear who subbed for her, Beth Fortini who was having a birthday party the same time, and Allyson Weaver, another sub. Sorry you weren't here. Thanks to a wonderful crew of helpers!
