Birch Lake Yacht Club

COMMODORES COMMENTS

It was another touch and go wet weekend. We have plenty of water in the lake with a lot more coming from the sky.

The boat parade had plenty of sun and a few enterprising people to help it go on schedule. Those of us who entered had a good time and the parade was viewed by thousands. Top prizes went to the Murphy-Cook-Condon Clan, the McElwee Clan and the Howard Clan. I want to thank also the Goddard-Tate Clan, the Dufour Clan, and the Troeger Clan for entering and making the parade interesting and successful.

The Barker will be shorter this week because our printer, the Olsons are on vacation.

CPR CLASSES

The CPR classes that were scheduled to start last Saturday were postponed to Tuesday and Thursday, July 27th and 29th of this week at the Yacht Club. Anyone interested in participating should call me right away so we know how many to expect.

Bud Rieth, 476-2174, Health & Safety Chairman,; Birch Lake Improvement Assoc.

If you were surprised to see the Hot Air Balloon come down on the lake last week, it had good reason to be here. John and Nancy O'Briens children surprised them on their anniversary with a ride in the balloon. They sailed together over the North Side hills and trees and had a successful flight. Congratulations John and Nancy!

SAILING NEWS

Once again the sailors sailed in and around the rain in two races. Twenty-three competitors braved wind and rain with Tim Burchell winning twice and Dave Troeger had two seconds. Tom Howard, Bill Carpenter, and Leo Zelasko are still tough. The rest of the fleet mixed things up with every one having a good race now and then.

NOTE: No races this weekend.

BIRCH LAKE NEWS

The Neil Onofryton family from Niles has purchased the Lake Cottage W 313. Lets make them welcome to Birch Lake. Mrs Lahr will make her home in a retirement house in Lafayette, Indiana.

Did you happen to be one of the many awakened last Saturday night from loud noises on the lake? We were informed those noises came from our resident scuba diver and his young group of swimmers. Bill apologizes for being so loud and would also like to remind everyone that he is still selling Birch Lake Summerfest T-Shirts. So if you are interested in purchasing these T-Shirts, give the "Screamer" a yell at Cottage S-12.
