

Birch Lake Yacht Club

Vandalia, Michigan

July 13, 1985

There are no words to describe the impact and deep feelings of sorrow we all share resulting from the tragedy of last weekend. I know all lake residents who read the Barker and the advertisers who support it will agree with the decision to suspend, this week, our normal format as the smallest token of respect and sympathy we share for the Habich family.

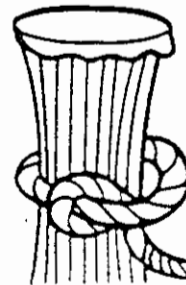

Mr. & Mrs. "Butch" Habich have asked me to convey their sincere appreciation to all those who helped in their time of need. When the call for help went out everyone who heard responded. Your quick reactions and help will always be appreciated.

It should be noted that two young men, Troy Jankowski and C.T. McElwee put their personal fears and safety aside in getting Donald from the water. Their efforts were heroic and provided those on shore with precious time.
