NEWS FROM THE SHORES OF BIRCH LAKE...

WEST SHORE

The KRINGS will be having a party for family members and a going away get-together for a member of their softball team this Saturday afternoon. THEN in the evening about dusk a family band will begin to play some smooth rock & roll according to MARY and anyone interested in having a little fun dancing is more than welcome to walk over for the bands debut. There's not a lot of room to park so just stroll over to the sound of the music and walk up the path to the SANCTUARY on top of the hill on the west shore

SOUTH SHORE

More TROEGER'S are back in the news with lots of grandchildren. Welcome to the two newest 4th generation Birch Lakers at JACK & JANET TROEGER'S cottage. JAMES MAXWELL, son of TIM & SUSAN, arrived on Jan. 26 (our first grandson!). AMY JANET, daughter of SCOTT & HOLLY, arrived on May 15, joining her cousins STEPHANIE & TARA. Watch out fellas, in about 12 years!!!!!!

EAST SHORE

In 1937 BOB & NEVA CARPENTER brought their daughter JEAN to CAMP TANADONAH. They fell in love with this paradise. For the next two summers they rented cottage #111. In 1940 they bought the lot next door and their son ED drew up plans for their new summer home. Since that time the cottage was full of friends and family that cherished every moment.

I was one of six grandchildren who had the pleasure of spending my summers here. So many years of happy memories that will be with me the rest of my life. In 1981 grandmother NEVA CARPENTER, moved to Fort Wayne to be closer to us. Since that time I have often thought of Birch Lake. This summer my husband JOHN and I along with my brother and sister-in-law, CHARLIE & LINDA SMITH rented cottage #111, like my grandparents did so many years ago. It has truly been wonderful to be back. So, I say thanks from the bottom of my heart to my grandparents for finding this beautiful place. I LOVE YOU!

LISA

Now THAT WE'RE ALL IN SHAPE AND THE TRIATHLON IS OVER...

AEROBICS

Its time to say goodbye to our aerobics instructor CLAUDIA GABLEMAN as she has just accepted a position as instructor with Body and Health Unlimited in Cassopolis. She will still be teaching aerobics on M-W-F at 9 AM Michigan time now, at their facility just East of Cass on Highway M-60. This Saturday AUGUST 15, CLAUDIA will be giving a special STRETCHING SEMINAR after a 1 hour Aerobics class beginning at 9 AM Michigan time. Cost $5. THANK YOU, CLAUDIA!!

TIME FLYS WHEN YOU'RE HAVIN' FUN!

The BIRCH LAKE TRIATHLON was a tremendous success after the Saturday morning washout, postponing the event until Sunday morning gave everyone a chance to size up the competition at Saturday nites party. It was nice and cool Sunday which led to some very good times even though there was a slight mist during the bicycling portion. Thirty seven contestants entered this years event with four teams in the 12 and under division, this could be quite an event in the next couple of years. The cheering crowd is what makes all of this worth while, if it wasn't for all of you this would not be nearly as much fun. Here are the teams and helpers that made this event a success!
