COMMODORE'S COMMENTS

Hello everyone - Commodore speaking! I'm sure everyone enjoyed the weekend I couldn't believe all of the activity on the Lake. (Please remember to be careful and courteous on the waters.) The weather is what we have all been waiting for hot, sunny and dry.

You can thank the Curtis' for the dry part of the weather. We had our lawn hydro-seeded and it has to be watered by hand two to three times a day. We haven't seen a drop of rain since the seeding.

It sure was nice to see the sailboats out there again. I heard they had a good turnout at their meeting. Watch for them July 2nd for their first race.

We need to remember that our donations are very important for the fireworks. It is approaching quickly. The display is going to be as good as or even better than last years.

Don't forget the Pancake breakfast Sunday, July 2nd at 8:00 am (IN) at the Camp Dining Hall. I've heard rumors that when you pass Sante's, in the evening, you can see Marty and Doris practicing flipping jacks in their kitchen. It should be a good meal, as always.

Well, that's it for now. Talk to you all next week.

God Bless.

Linda Curtis

NEWS FROM THE COVE...And yet another trophy has been added to the groaning shelf at the Bergan home. Last Saturday Nick won his third consecutive championship, shooting 81, in the Linnen-Jefferies Tournament held at the Hampshire Golf Course, Dowagiac. Is there no stopping this fine young player? We certainly hope not!
