COMMODORE'S COMMENTS

It's Sunday and I just got back from the Kid's Party at the Yacht Club. It was a fun time.

We hope that you are joining us at the Annual Fall Dinner this Saturday (where did the summer go?) Following the dinner there will be the Sailor's Party September 9th at 5:30pm. Last event of the season.

Well, I guess this is time for me to say goodbye as the Commodore of Birch Lake. It was a great time and learning experience. I've made alot of new friends this year. Thanks to all of my helpers I couldn't have done it without them.

We rock and rolled, cooked pancakes, shot off fireworks, cooked sausage, and corn, directed boat parades, played golf, had luncheons, hosted cocktail parties, and it was a blast.

Thanks to Terry and my family for their help and understanding. I love you all.

Thanks to my editor, Doris Sante, and delivers Staci Whiteman, Annie Torma, Jim Mitchell, Wanda Winarski, Mullins, Wagners and Kruggels.

Well, it's all yours Sue.

God Bless you all...

Linda Curtis

SEPTEMBER 3	5:30	SAILOR'S COCKTAIL PARTY - BLYC

KID'S PARTY - We had a terrific turnout with 45 to 50 kids in attendance. The magician, Hank Moorehouse, from White Pigeon, was just amazing. Young and old alike were awe-struck with the tricks he performed. The ice cream sundaes were delicious too!

Thank you to Bob Morrison who donated freeze pops for all the kids, Pam Mullins who showed up with a box of prizes, and to Myra Mathers who helped pass out these treats as the kids left. Also, thanks to Ryan Gableman and Matt Williams for scooping ice cream and to Natalie and Philip Dudeck and Brittany Gableman for helping to clean up.

And last but certainly not least a great big thank you to my terrific friend, Jeanne Olguin, for all she did in helping me make the Kid's Party a big success. By Staci Whiteman

GOLF OUTING - The question is, who won the BLYC Golf Outing Scramble this year. The answer is Tom Troeger and his mighty foresome consisting of Todd Troeger, Tim Rink and Jim Holland. Eventhough there was no word of this in the Barker, they say they will accept the challenge and return next year to defend their title.

SAILING NEWS

The wind last Sunday was light and variable on an overcast day, but held up enough to get 3 races in. The competition has become very close, but the leaders somehow are continuing to dominate. Lead changes are numerous and everyone has a chance. Harold Cranmer continues to lead the MC class with two 2nds and a 1st, Dave Troeger follows in the standings and had two 1sts and a 2nd. Tom Troeger finished with two 3rds and a 4th to move into 3rd place for the season.

In the Sunfish Class, Scott Troeger took over 1st place for the season with two 1sts and a 2nd. Tom Howard slipped to 2nd and Bob King took over 3rd place. The season standings follow:

MC CLASS			SUNFISH CLASS
Position	No Races	Points	Position	No Races	Points
1. Cranmer	13	1652	1. S Troeger	13	1659
2. D Troeger	12	1631	2. Howard	13	1622
3. T Troeger	12	1565	3. King	10	1478
4. Harman	13	1557	4. Olson	11	1468
5. Green	10	1398	5. Machalleck	5	1465
6. Jones	8	1386	6. Gableman	9	1461
7. Harlan	4	1337	7. Harman	5	1425

We will try to sail 3 races Sunday, again starting at 10am. As you can see the positions can change especially for third place in both classes.

Sunday will be the final season races. Labor Day is a new series completely. We ask that all MC skippers take a crew on board for the Labor Day Regatta.

All Sunfish Sailors are welcome. For those of you who haven't raced, give it a try. You have nothing to lose and you may enjoy it.

NOTE

THE SAILOR'S COCKTAIL PARTY on Sunday, September 3rd is for everyone on the Lake. Come join us at 5:30 to close the "95" season.
